COURSE DESCRIPTION
A beginning choreography class for the creatively inclined dance student. The class is designed to give the student an opportunity to work with a professional choreographer, to learn methods of choreography, to rehearse and to perform. The student will be required to choreograph a dance piece during the semester. May be repeated once on each level for credit. Student must be simultaneously attending another dance technique class in addition to Repertory Dance.

Objectives: Students will be able to structure original choreography proficiently and problem solve various choreographic projects/challenges. Students will be able to analyze, critique and discuss choreography in an intelligent, productive manner. Students will be able to work creatively under deadlines and manage rehearsals effectively, retaining choreography and performing it with confidence and accuracy.

Policies: Always be on time. Wear suitable dance clothing, leotards please, and tights or leggings. Canvas ballet slippers will be required. (beige, white, or light pink please) Hair up and out of the way. Attendance is mandatory- your presence is imperative for the faculty choreography to proceed smoothly. There are no excused absences outside of BSU related and approved activities.

Requirements for Repertory Dance class choreography projects to be performed in the Dance Concert

1. You must choreograph by yourself- NO collaborations.
2. 210 level students cannot be in their own piece unless they have Marla Hansen’s permission.
3. You may use any dancers you like- they do not have to be in repertory class, or BSU students. But they must be able to show the entire piece at the same time by the due date and be available for dress rehearsal and all performances.
4. Your piece may not be longer than 5-6 min. unless you have special permission from Marla Hansen.
5. You may not use pop music with lyrics unless you are upper division and it must not be similar to your last piece for this class.
6. You may choreograph in any style and do most anything as long as it is not in “Bad” taste.
7. You may choreograph a solo on yourself, with Marla’s permission, unless you did that last semester.
8. You may use as many dancers as you like if approved by Marla in your written proposal.
9. You may change your music and proposal one time after you have already turned in and received approval on your first proposal and it must be done within the first 5 weeks of the semester.

Rules for Choreographers

1. Choreographers must inform their dancers about policies for dress rehearsal and performance, you are responsible for keeping them informed!
2. All dancers must sign–in upon arriving at the theatre (time to be announced) and be on time for the warm-up. All dancers must warm-up.
3. All props or set pieces must be checked and set-up ready for the performance before the house opens. The house opens ½ hour before curtain. Choreographers are responsible for putting away their props/sets after each performance.
4. One dancer from each piece must check in with the stage manager to inform her that the dancers are all ready and in their places before going on stage.
5. Dancers are to be quiet when exiting the stage and remain quiet in the halls during performances.
6. No dancers are to come out in costume into the halls or areas where audience members can see them before or during performances, including intermissions.
7. No eating or drinking in costume. Do not leave any costume items on the floor. Leave all costumes borrowed from Idaho Dance Theatre in the dressing room after performance. Do not take home and launder- you may shrink or ruin something by not knowing how it should be cleaned.
8. Dancers are not allowed to go in the audience after they have performed and watch the rest of the show.
9. Dancers should inform their friends and relatives that they are not allowed to come to the performance for their piece only and then leave. Latecomers without tickets are not allowed into the performance.
10. No photography or videotaping is allowed during the performances. If you want to video it must be done during dress rehearsal. A professional videographer is hired to video the show and DVDs may be purchased.
11. Please read the B111 rules and times regarding signing up for rehearsal time.
